Anticipation

Another year is almost gone, accelerating forward through the horizon of time. Another year is approaching as we await with anticipation. The mandate has been given, “Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming.” (Matthew 25:13) Our Master has commanded us to watch; how do we watch? It means to be active, active in His service. Will He find you watching with anticipation for the blessed hope? Or will you be inactive, asleep, slumbering, while the door shuts behind you; with trembling you call to the Master, “...Lord, Lord, open to us!” and He will answer you, “...Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you.” (Matthew 25:12)

About Our Speaker

Elder Daniel R. Jackson

Daniel R. Jackson, the president of the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists, was elected June 28, 2010, by delegates of the world church at their business session in Atlanta, Ga., and reelected to this position on July 6, 2015 at the 60th General Conference Session held in San Antonio, Texas. The General Conference Session is the highest governing body in the Church.

Jackson is a native Canadian and, with the exception of five years of service in the Southern Asia Division, has lived and ministered in the North American Division. He is a graduate of Canadian Union College (now Burman University) and Andrews University, from which he holds an M.A. in Religion in Systematic Theology.

During his career, Jackson has served the church as a pastor, teacher and administrator. Jackson and his wife, Donna, enjoy the three children and four grandchildren the Lord has given them.

But foremost, Jackson says that he is a fellow traveler on the same path as every Christian headed toward the Kingdom.

Our Music Guests

Charlie and Friends started about 4 years ago. Charlie played his ukulele in an Oahu church and garnered a following. The group has been playing together, sharing their special musical gift to all the churches on Oahu. Over the years, they have performed at weddings, funerals and numerous other events.

They have added a new dimension to their sharing. Beginning six months ago, they have been singing and sharing with the homeless of Honolulu. Their church opens up and shares meals and provides showers, and fellowship singing every other Sabbath afternoon.

Among their next goals are visiting and sharing music in the prisons on Oahu. They trust that God will guide and direct their ministry.
